Mount Mercy University competes in the Midwest Collegiate Conference (MCC) and the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA). The NAIA, which offers 23 championships in 13 sports, has 50,000 student-athletes participating at nearly 300 member colleges and universities throughout the United States and Canada.

The NAIA Champions of Character program is an educational outreach initiative which emphasizes the tenets of character and integrity, not only for NAIA college students, but for younger students, coaches and parents in our communities. We all have a role in developing students of character, and the NAIA Champions of Character program offers training, guidelines and behavior models to create positive environments that promote personal growth and fun sport activity.

GIRLS' OFFENSIVE IMPROVEMENT CAMPS

Monday-Friday, June 23-27 ($150)

Monday-Friday, July 7-11 ($150)

Monday-Friday, Aug. 4-8 ($150)

Grades 3-9 9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

Lunch is included in all sessions

The offensive improvement camp is designed for girls who want to gain some serious offensive skills this summer. Our outstanding staff of coaches, current and former players will take you through shooting, ballhandling, footwork, passing, cutting, screening, and offensive rebounding drills. Campers will also get to test these new skills in full- and half-court games and individual contests.

CAMP DIRECTOR

Aaron Jennings

Women's Basketball Coach

Jennings took over the Mount Mercy women's basketball program after serving as the top assistant on the Mustang men's basketball team for four years. In his fourth season, he guided the Mustangs to the quarterfinals of the 2011-12 NAIA Division II Women's Basketball National Championship.

A native of Atkins, Iowa, and a former Benton Community prep, Jennings earned a bachelor of science in communication from Northwestern in Evanston, Ill., in 2003. He was a four-year letterwinner and team captain his junior and senior seasons for the Wildcats. In between a brief professional playing career in Croatia in 2003 and a stint with the Cedar Rapids River Raiders in 2004, Jennings was the assistant boys' basketball coach at Benton Community and was named Iowa Class 3A Assistant Coach of the Year.
