Fun with Folk Art!

NCSML Summer Camp

National Czech & Slovak Museum & Library

July 14-18, 2014

Spend a week this summer learning from a Master Folk Artist! Decorate beautiful eggs using traditional techniques, discover the craft of Polish paper cutting, turn ordinary wheat and straw into works of art, and use dough to create cute Czech-style creatures that become keepsakes. There are 3 fun hands-on crafts each day.

Folk artist Daniela Sipkova Mahoney learned how to decorate eggs when she was a young girl in Czechoslovakia. She has continued this tradition, and has taught many cultural craft classes for both adults and children. Daniela has published many children's coloring and activity books, and enjoys teaching about Czech and Slovak heritage. She lives in Portland, Oregon.

Classes are tailored to children grades K-8. Snacks and craft materials will be provided. Students may pick and choose sessions, or attend the whole week. All projects are for beginners, and tailored to the age of the child. A waiver must be signed for each child. Please notify the NCSML if he/she has any dietary restrictions or disabilities so that we may accommodate them.

Whole week: $100 per child ($90 for members)
À la carte: $25 per day, per child
