INSTRUCTION

Three teaching rooms will each be led by US Chess Masters

Alex Betaneli: Wisconsin State Champion in 2000, 2001, 2005, and 2012. He frequently writes for the most widely read American chess magazine Chess Life. Alex's students consistently win titles at both state and national levels.

Erik Santarius: Wisconsin State Champion in 2008, 2009, 2010, and 2013. He has four International Master norms and will be awarded the title once his international rating reaches 2400. Erik's students consistently win awards in individual and team competitions.

Dan Brashaw: Iowa State Champion in 2013 and 2015. He is Iowa's newest USCF Master. Dan returns following his 2014 inaugural year at the Prairie Chess Camp. Dan is the former Iowa High School state champion and representative to the National Denker Tournament of High School Champions.
