Orpheus was a great musician in Ancient Greece. It is said that nothing could resist to his music and melody, neither friends nor enemies or beasts. Even trees and rocks were entranced by his music.

Orpheus fell in love with Eurydice- a woman of unique beauty; they got married and lived happily- But the fates stole Eurydice's life and now Orpheus will stop at nothing to get her back

Join us for this adaption of Orpheus' mythical journey to the underworld and back!
